Description

Recreating family recipes is what Sonoma Coast Spirits is all about. Founded in 2011, Doug and Jill Olson operate their craft distillery in Petaluma, CA. They bring to the discriminating consumer Jill's traditional family recipes in ready to drink craft cocktails to be enjoyed conveniently in your home with family and friends. Her award winning products are hand-crafted and artisan in nature. After pouring her cocktails at Petaluma Woman's Club; Rotary events; and various fundraisers, Jill was urged to start the business and bottle the cocktails for everyone to enjoy. Using only the finest ingredients, the cocktails are 32 proof and all natural. Shelf life is approximately 3-4 years. Available in stores throughout California including large chains: Total Wine and Spirits (Statewide placement in California); Save Mart (statewide placement in California); Safeway (statewide placement); BevMo in 5 counties; Whole Foods in Northern California; Lucky's (statewide placement); and all Nugget Stores in Sacramento and the bay area. The cocktails have been selling briskly for the past 5 years due to quality and taste; high alcohol content; and label design. Placement is best in the vodka section where customers are searching for vodka products, as well as the cold case.
