Description

Recreating family recipes is what Sonoma Coast Spirits is all about. Founded in 2011 by Doug and Jill Olson. After Doug's untimely passing in November, 2018, Jill now runs the Petaluma, California craft distillery with the help of her three sons and daughter. They bring to the discriminating consumer Jill's traditional family recipes in Ready To Drink Cocktails launched in 2012, (lemon drop; pomegranate cosmo; mango tango; and raspberry lemonade). The Grappa line launched in 2015, offers Zinfandel (taken from the pomace of Jill's sisters vineyard on the top of Howells Mountain in St. Helena); Pinot Noir; and Wood Aged Grappa. (Jill's passion for grappa came from her great-grandfather, Leonardo Dioguardi, who owned a distillery (and made Grappa) in Santa Rosa prior to prohibition. The Vodka line launched in 2015 offers Original; Citrus Basil; Jalapeno Lime; Rose; Espresso; and Sweet Ginger. Our products are available in California, including Total Wine and Spirits; Save Mart; Lucky's; Safeway; Nugget Stores; Whole Foods; Bev Mo; and independent stores statewide.
